

Krabs

Railing post holder for holding the BETOMAX® railing post in the area of ceiling edges. Installation on the formwork in the edge area of ceilings (built-in part remains in the concrete).

Concrete cover C:

size 1 = 20mm

size 2 = 30mm

Calculation of pipe length:

$L = \text{component thickness} - C$

| Article description | Title of variant               | Packaging piece/metre/ metre by themetre/ bucket/ bag/bundle/ box/ can | Weightkg/metre | Weightkg/piece | Weightkg/1000pieces |
|---------------------|--------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|--------------------|-----------------------------|
| 48613000            | Crabs Gr. 1                    | 50 pieces/bag                                                                      |                    | 0,030              |                             |
| 48629000            | Crabs Gr. 2                    | 50 pieces/bag                                                                      |                    | 0,050              |                             |
| 63034000            | Round tube K34/40          | 50 metres/bunch                                                                    | 0,350              |                    |                             |
| 63050050            | Round tube K50/54          | 40 metres/bunch                                                                    | 0,410              |                    |                             |
| 66434900            | Deckel size 34                 | 500 pieces/bag                                                                     |                    |                    | 5,750                       |
| 66450400            | Deckel size 50                 | 500 pieces/bag                                                                     |                    |                    | 7,400                       |
| 39035000            | Stainless steel nails35 mm | 200 pieces / carton                                                                |                    |                    | 0,780                       |